He tried to make his escape on a horse but was captured by Deputy Sheriff Elliff after a pretty chase of eight miles. RESOLVED, by the citizens of Carlsbad and the members of its Commercial Club, that we tender to the Methodist brethren resident in Carlsbad our hearty co-operation for the purpose of securing to Carlsbad the location of this institution; and be it further

RESOLVED, that a hearty invitation be extended to such committee appointed by said Conference, who have the erection of this noble institution in charge, to look over the beautiful site, consisting of a forty acre tract of land in the western portion of our city, which has been selected by the committee of the Commercial Club to be tendered, among other valuable offerings, as a donation to said institution, at the proper time for the purpose of securing its location here, be it further

RESOLVED, that the attention of the location committee of said Conference be called to our mild, healthful and invigorating climate; to the fact that our town is sheltered from the extreme vicissitudes of winter by mountain ranges from which flow tempering breezes in the summer; that we are under the irrigation system and are pardonably proud of the energy, hospitality and intelligence of our citizens, be it further.

RESOLVED, that the Commercial Club of Carlsbad and its individual members pledge ourselves, collectively and individually, to work with the delegates of said Conference from Carlsbad to the securing of said college for our town and do all in our power to assist them, both morally and financially, to that end until there is no more that can be done, be it further selected for its location that we, for the Commercial Club and in behalf of the citizens of Carlsbad, pledge our support of said institution commensurate with the support and interest taken in it in the future by said Conference and pray God's blessing on all those connected with this noble work.
